Instructions to applicants:

Please read before continuing with the application process.

If you are interested with employment with the Nacogdoches County Sheriff Office, please download and fill out the job application form and return this to the Nacogdoches County Sheriff Office. If applying for a patrol position, please return your application to Chief Deputy Stephen Godfrey or Courtney Brown. Both can be reached at 560-7794. We will only accept applications for patrol positions when there is a job vacancy posted.

If applying for a jail position, you will need to return your application to Terry Smith or Courtney Brown in the administrative offices. They can be reached at 936-560-7794. The Sheriff Office has an open application process for the jail, and we will accept applications at any time throughout the year. Job vacancies will be filled as they become available and applications are kept on file for six months.

All applicants should only fill out the job application form. You will be directed at a later date to fill out the personal history statement form.

Please make sure you qualify for any position that is posted before your apply.

The Nacogdoches County Sheriff Office is an at-will employer. We thank you for your interest in employment with the Sheriff Office.
